BIRD'S EYE CONFERENCE

MARCH 4-5 @ BAHEN CENTRE

Get a bird's eye view of current research in the mathematics department through accessible survey talks given by fellow graduate students. Topics include:

- Geometry and Topology
- Analysis and Applied Math
- Algebra and Number Theory
- Probability and Optimal Transport
- Set Theory and Combinatorics

Come connect with peers, and maybe even find a potential advisor! Lunch, coffee and snacks will be provided.

For more info:
http://bit.ly/birdseyeconference
birdseye.conference@gmail.com

Poster design by Isabel Beach